Trudy Hodges, Former CEO

Dear SRC Friends & Family,

This annual report concludes my chapter as CEO of Serenity Recovery Connection. It has been a great honor to serve and guide this cutting-edge organization. My heart overflows with gratitude at the many powerful stories told by unsung heroes whose courage I will never forget.

SRC has continued to grow in 2023, reflecting the ongoing demand for peer recovery services. I am thankful for the brave individuals in recovery who choose to step up to serve their peers.

Strategic planning and vision casting have also been at the forefront of our efforts this year. Our primary goal has been to effectively serve those most in need by enhancing accessibility to peer coaches, bridging gaps, and collaborating with community partners to enhance person-centered care.

The Board and Staff of SRC have envisioned expanding healthcare services to underserved areas around El Paso County and Teller and Fremont Counties, and to safe-net clinics. Our partnerships now include Common Spirit (formerly Centura Health), the Homeless Outreach Team of CSPD, Marion House and the Fountain Valley Clinic. I'm excited to share that we also received the OPIOID Settlement funding which will provide much needed funding to underwrite many of these efforts.

We have also seen growth in our justice program, which now serves in all seven problem solving courts, related to substance use disorder. Support groups, Family Groups and pro-social events in 2023 welcomed over 5,800 new referrals, which is a 23% increase from last year.

It has been an incredible experience to serve this organization. Although I close this chapter as CEO, my commitment to SRC will continue. Thank you to all of you who I have met along the way. Those who founded SRC, those we have served, those who I have worked alongside and those who continue to carry out this mission. We never journey alone, nor could one individual create this level of impact. Collectively, and with the help of God, we can transform lives! Now, this torch will pass to the new CEO, Sheri Trahern.

Sheri Trahern, Current CEO

Dear SRC Friends & Family,

I am honored to join this passionate and committed team! This is an exciting time for SRC, and I look forward to stepping into this adventure with all of you. Thank you to everyone for the warm welcome I received.

The epidemic of substance use disorder has devastated so many lives. Which is why the work and mission of SRC is essential. I am humbled and inspired by the tenacity of SRC staff to continue to reach out with hope to those suffering from their addiction.

My vision for this organization is to increase our reach to families who are struggling with the skills and resources to help their loved ones; to broaden coaching access to those in underserved communities; to expand access to our training academy and continuing the work to reduce the stigma associated with this disease, all with your help. Thank you for trusting me with this amazing organization and the extraordinary people who lead it.

WHO WE ARE

Serenity Recovery Connection (SRC) is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit Recovery Community Organization that aims to strengthen the recovery community through peer-to-peer and family support, public education, and advocacy. As members of the Association of Recovery Community Organizations (ARCO), SRC is one of 170 across the country and has the distinction of being the only accredited Recovery Community Organization in Colorado. Serenity Recovery Connection is funded through private, state, and federal grants, as well as individual and corporate donations.

WHAT IS A RECOVERY COMMUNITY ORGANIZATION?

Recovery Community Organizations (RCOs) are central hubs for recovery-focused policy efforts, advocacy activities, community education and outreach programs. RCOs are demonstrating leadership in their towns, cities and states, as well as on the national landscape. Many are also providing peer-based recovery support services. While RCOs are independent, they share a recovery vision. They aim to serve as a bridge between diverse communities of recovery, addiction treatment community, governmental agencies, the criminal justice system, and the larger network of health and human services providers.

OUR VISION

Serenity Recovery Connection envisions a community that understands, supports, and embraces recovery from addiction. We believe there are many roads to recovery.

OUR MISSION

SRC's mission is to strengthen the recovery community through peer-to-peer and family support, public education and advocacy.

FAMILY PROGRAM

Serenity Recovery Connection’s Community Reinforcement and Family Training (CRAFT) Family Support Program is for family members and friends concerned about someone close to them who lives with substance use disorder. CRAFT training is an evidence-based curriculum that is compassionate, skills-centered, and empowers family members to learn and practice. The goals of CRAFT are to reduce a loved one’s harmful substance use, engage a loved one in treatment, improve relationships in the family, and improve the functioning of the concerned family member or friend. Family members learn strategies to take care of themselves, while also increasing the motivation for positive change in their loved ones.

PEER RECOVERY COACHING

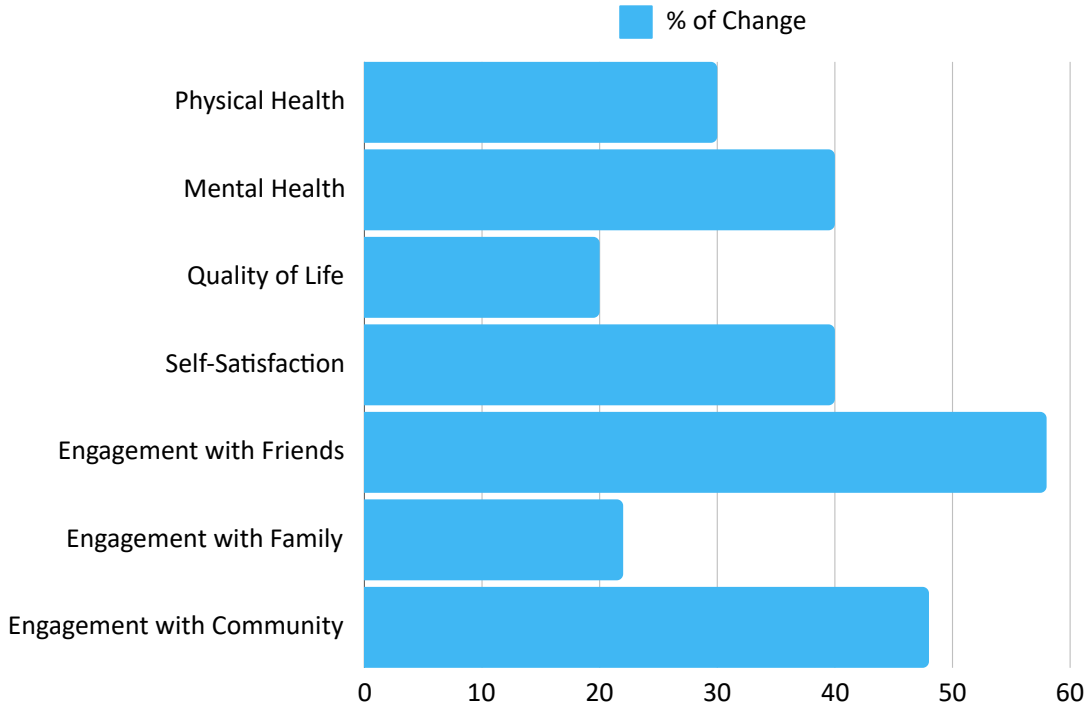

Our Peer Recovery Coaches are the heart of Serenity Recovery Connection. Peer Recovery Coaches are individuals in long-term recovery who walk alongside those in the early stages of recovery and those seeking to maintain recovery. Peer Recovery Coaches share lived experience and emphasize SAMHSA’s eight dimensions of wellness: emotional, physical, intellectual, occupational, spiritual, social, financial and environmental wellness. Peer Recovery Coaches engage in a supportive relationship with participants that creates remarkable results in their lives, careers, businesses, and organizations.

HEALTHCARE PROGRAM

SRC's Healthcare Program is a non-clinical program facilitated by peers with the goal of reducing the stigma of substance use disorder (SUD) throughout the healthcare system. Peer Recovery Support Specialists visit healthcare settings including the emergency room. Healthcare Certified Peer Recovery Coaches are trained in the healthcare curriculum and support participants with complications associated with substance use disorder. SRC also supports patients after discharge with telephone recovery support, peer coaching and resource navigation. Clinicians and healthcare staff benefit by gaining firsthand insight as coaches share their own experiences of recovery. They gain a better understanding of the variety of pathways and resources available to individuals seeking to recover from substance use disorder in our community.

ONE FAMILY'S STORY OF RECOVERY

Our names are Bill and Amy. We have been allies in recovery since March of 2023. Before that, we tried to do our best to help our son, but we didn't know what we didn't know, and nothing we tried seemed to work. The first three months of last year were a low point for us. We could see our son's slide into addiction was becoming faster and further. We felt powerless against the pull of his addiction.

Fortunately, we found some true 'angels' in March 2023. They began guiding us on how we could best support our son in recovery. Since then, we have learned so much!

Bill and Amy P.

The Community Reinforcement and Family Training (C.R.A.F.T.) Program at SRC, and the Family Program at the Foundry made a huge difference for us. The most important thing to us was not to lose our relationship with our son. C.R.A.F.T. was particularly helpful! We learned how to have productive, less emotionally charged conversations. We gained insight into the best ways to encourage our son on his path to recovery.

In a little over a year, we have made SO MUCH progress! Our son is approaching one full year sober, for which we are extremely thankful! We have also been able to communicate more openly, honestly and directly. We are also more deeply connected than we have been in a long time. I'm really grateful to report that our son is healthier and happier than he has been in years.

We highly recommend a C.R.A.F.T. class at SRC to others who find themselves like we did - lost, feeling alone, and dealing with a life-threatening problem, while having no tools or resources to help our son, or ourselves. We discovered that participating in a family support group was valuable too. Sharing our story, and hearing the stories of others, has been profoundly healing for us. We hope that through our continued participation and advocacy, these resources will remain available to help others facing similar challenges.

JUSTICE PROGRAM

Current and formerly- incarcerated individuals are offered personalized recovery wellness planning from a certified Justice Recovery Coach at SRC. SRC’s Justice program is partly funded by the “Building Communities of Recovery Grant,” provided by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Administration (SAMHSA BCOR). Recovery Coaches coordinate virtual coaching sessions with those currently housed at the El Paso County Jail and assist them with bridging the gap during the re-entry process. Partnerships and contracts with the local Problem-Solving Courts have made SRC recovery coaches available during weekly bond advisement dockets, Family Treatment Drug Court, and Recovery Court dockets.

Since 2019, SRC has collaborated with El Paso County 4th Judicial Problem-Solving Courts & Probation, El Paso County Sheriff’s Behavioral Health Connect (BHCON) Unit, the El Paso County Jail and local community corrections agencies. Throughout the last year, SRC expanded Recovery Coaching services to the El Paso County Adult Division of Parole and the Colorado Department of Corrections (CDOC). In 2023, SRC expanded services into two CDOC facilities, providing weekly support with the Therapeutic Community (T.C.) program for re-entry services.

SRC is working on obtaining a grant that will allow us to provide paid internships for up to 30 Peer Coaches, this will include the cost to become state certified as a Peer Recovery Coach.

TRAINING ACADEMY

The SRC Training Academy prepares students to become Peer Recovery Coaches (PRC) by providing the skill set necessary to guide and mentor others struggling with substance use disorder. Participants learn how to manage one's own recovery, how to promote recovery in others, and identify and remove barriers to recovery. SRC trainings teach how to connect participants with stage-appropriate recovery support, while encouraging hope and optimism through strength-based motivational conversation. A recent initiative launched by our training team provides ongoing monthly supervision and professional development for aspiring PRC's housed in the Department of Corrections.
